

Data Protection of Delegate Information [Updated October 2024]

Introduction: The ABA Collective, LLC is committed to protecting the personal data of delegates participating in our certification programs, in compliance with data protection laws.

Scope: Applies to all data collected from delegates during registrations, communications, and interactions.

Data Subject Rights: Delegates have rights to access, rectification, erasure, restriction, portability, and objection concerning their personal data.

Data Sharing and Transfers: Data may be shared with third parties providing essential event services under strict compliance with data protection laws.

Breach Notification: In case of a data breach, affected parties and authorities will be promptly notified.

Policy Review: Regular reviews will ensure ongoing compliance and effectiveness.

Contact Information: For questions or concerns, reach us at info@theabacollective.com.